

The Australian Society of Special Care in Dentistry is joining forces with the Dental Therapists Association of NSW to present a day of lectures with a symposia style discussion at the end of each session in the beautiful Hunter Valley. Topics covered will include psychology of patient management, public health and multidisciplinary approaches, alternative therapies and train-the-trainer programs, making it a diverse and practical Special Care program.

- Associate Professor and Director of the Bachelor of Oral Health program, Dr Peter Dennison, will present Public Health Approach and Bachelor of Oral Health (BOH) as part of the dental team.
- Dr Meg Hyam, will present the psychology of Special Care patients Management- the core of our practice.
- Dr Sally Hibbert, paediatric dental consultant for the Children's Hospital and Westmead Centre for Oral Health will detail common oral health problems in people with Special Needs. Sally is also in private practice in Newcastle, and will give us the benefit of her knowledge in both areas.
- Rachel Hampshire, senior speech pathologist at Westmead Centre for Oral Health, will explain the nature of the Tongue Tie Clinic; Oral Motor Function Therapy clinic and paediatric ward rounds. Rachel also works in private practice in Sydney.
- Sarah McKay, Dietitian at Westmead Centre for Oral Health, will discuss her role in Oral Motor Function Therapy.
- Innovative models of care will be presented in the afternoon session.
- Meredith Kay, Director of Northern Sydney Central Coast Area Health Service, will outline new programs in the area.
- Elizabeth Hillman & Siva Premkumar, oral health educators, will present two programs, Smiles for Life and Residential Oral Care .
- Sharyn James & Dr Peter King will give us an update on Changing Oral Health behaviours in the Newcastle region.
- At the end of the day, a session on alternative therapies in Special Care will keep you interested up to the last word.

Finally, join us for a relaxing dinner and be inspired by Dr Manish K Bhutada, the youngest author on the subject of Yoga, with a book titled "Yoga for Health".
